DEAR FRIEND OF WEST-MONT,

This year as we celebrate our 39th Anniversary, we recognize that we are poised uniquely for the future.

Our creative God has brought us resources, innovation, and solutions that we could have never expected. We are so humbled by His graciousness to us, and are committed to be good stewards of His provision. West-Mont Christian Academy commits to do the right thing, for the right reasons, so that we will be able to provide a vibrant Christian education for generations to come. Will you partner with us to help ensure this future for students to come?

Last year was a record-breaking Annual Fund of over $555,000; approximately double what has been donated in previous years. These contributions helped to close the gap between revenue and expenses, and also assisted us in some vital initiatives; Tuition Assistance, improved technology, implementation of service learning,

Equipping Students to Find Their Place in God's Story

increasing availability of outdoor learning, and improvements in our elementary curricular offerings are just a few of the ways that your gifts made a difference.

Please take these next steps with us as we look toward the future, which is full of God's promises for West-Mont Christian Academy.

See the inside of the brochure to learn how you can donate today!
